About Michael O'Neal

Dr. Michael O'Neal is nationally and internationally recognized as a leader in choral music, with an established reputation as a conductor, tenor soloist, educator, and church musician. He has guided MOS since its inception with his vision for attaining the highest standards of choral excellence. His enthusiasm for the impact of choral music on the lives of both singers and listeners is shared with audiences through entertaining and informative commentary as well as through the music itself. His work with Robert Shaw evoked the following accolade: "Michael O'Neal possesses fine musicianship, a good sense of style, familiarity with good vocal and choral sound, and a personal integrity and devotion to music. Though personally talented, he always manages to see that the music comes first."

About The Michael O'Neal Singers

Since its inception in 1989, The Michael O'Neal Singers organization has established itself as one of the premier symphonic choruses in the Southeastern United States. Composed of a chorus of over 155 auditioned voices and the 40-member Kaleidoscope ensemble, MOS offers choral presentations of unparalleled artistic merit and programmatic variety. Throughout its 28-year history, MOS has established a reputation for choral excellence that extends throughout the United States and abroad. Concert performances around the Southeastern United States, national and international tours, and a growing discography have received acclaim from audience members and music critics alike. The full chorus has eighteen recordings to its credit and has performed in some of the most notable venues in the world, receiving high accolades for artistic excellence. Through a range of choral programming that includes classical masterworks, sacred and secular choral music, jazz standards, rock-and-roll, and choruses from musical theatre, The Michael O'Neal Singers offers a spectrum of music to appeal to diverse audiences of all ages and musical tastes.

Brent Davis

Christmas Light

Sunday, December 3, 2017
3:00 p.m.
Roswell UMC

The full MOS chorus and Kaleidoscope ensemble perform a varied repertoire exploring all the many ways the theme of "light" is incorporated into Christmas music.

12th Annual
Messiah Sing-Along

Sunday, December 17, 2017
3:00 p.m.
Roswell UMC

Along with professional vocal soloists, chamber orchestra, and Organist Tom Alderman, hundreds of singers will perform the Christmas portion and the "Hallelujah" chorus of George Frideric Handel's inspired masterpiece.

Alpha and Omega
SONGS OF BEGINNINGS AND ENDINGS

Saturday, February 10, 2018
7:30 p.m.
Lassiter Concert Hall

Sunday, February 11, 2018
3:00 p.m.
Alpharetta Presbyterian Church

True to its name, the Kaleidoscope ensemble performs a concert of songs spanning many musical styles and eras, all focused on the theme of beginnings and endings. Expect anything—Renaissance motets, vocal jazz, classical masterpieces, and musical theatre hits may all make an appearance!

Return to Old Ireland

Friday, March 16, 2018
8:00 p.m.
Roswell UMC

Just in time for St. Patrick's Day, the full chorus teams with the Burke Connolly Academy of Irish Dance to present a program of true Irish favorites in both song and dance. Along with The Wearin' of the Green, Molly Malone, The Old House, and other familiar tunes, the chorus will reprise a portion of Return to Old Ireland by Mary McAuliffe.

The French Connection

Sunday, May 6, 2018
3:00 p.m.

MOS Remembers

MOS Remembers is a CD created as an outreach from the MOS organization to those in our community suffering from memory loss or other age-related issues which prevent them from attending MOS concerts in person. To request a free copy of MOS Remembers for a friend or family member, visit mosingers.com/mosremembers or contact the MOS office at 770.594.7974.

Take Home MOS

MOS has recorded 18 professional CDs with a 19th, Christmas Through the Ages, to be released in December 2017.
Visit mosingers.com/cds for information or to purchase CDs. Select MOS recordings may also be purchased via iTunes, Amazon, and Spotify, and other online outlets.

2017-2018 Concert Season

All concerts take place in the Sanctuary of Roswell United Methodist Church, 814 Mimosa Blvd., Roswell, Georgia 30075 except for Kaleidoscope's February concert, Alpha and Omega, which will take place at Lassiter Concert Hall, 2601 Shallowford Road, Marietta, Georgia 30066 and at Alpharetta Presbyterian Church, 180 Academy Street, Alpharetta, Georgia 30009. We offer general seating at all our concerts, so arrive early to secure the best seats.
